Considering expanding your sail or powerboating horizons? Have an itch to be doing something besides “sitting by the dock of the bay?” Nervous about taking that new cruiser on the river or the Sound? Or would you just like to give racing a try?

If any of these fit or if you are simply in love with yachting and have a desire to belong to a community of like-minded people then the Hudson Cove Yacht Club is for you!

The Hudson Cove Yacht Club is located at the Haverstraw Marina on Haverstraw Bay. The club uses the Marina Conference Center for most meetings and many social and special events.

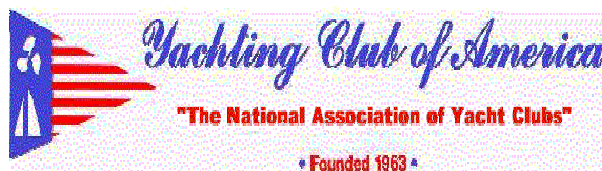

About The Club

Hudson Cove Yacht Club was established in 1984. It is dedicated to the support of yachting and associated programs for members.

Hudson Cove Yacht Club encourages good seamanship and fellowship through its boating programs, racing, cruising, and social and educational activities for the sailor and powerboater alike.

Hudson Cove Yacht Club is comprised of more than 40 family units. Members participate in a year-round social calendar... Parties, banquets, cookouts, outings, and special events.

Hudson Cove Yacht Club has an active sailboat racing program, regattas, powerboat programs, club cruises, boater seminars and speakers, and much more.

How To Be Part of Our Group

Complete the Membership Application available online at www.hudsoncove.com or from our Membership Committee. A new member may be sponsored by any active HCYC member in good standing for at least one year. If needed, our Membership Committee will help with introductions. Mail your completed application with a deposit of your dues and initiation fee to

Hudson Cove Yacht Club
